MOE Tuition Grant Scheme

Eligibility for MOE Tuition Grant Scheme

The MOE Tuition Grant (TG) Scheme is open to students enrolled in full-time Diploma programmes in the polytechnics to help defray the cost of their tertiary education.

For Singapore Citizens: You will be automatically awarded a Tier A TG, which is the highest level of subsidy, upon successful enrolment into the polytechnics. This is provided that you have not benefited from TG previously to complete a course at the same or higher level of education.

For Permanent Residents: You may apply for a Tier B TG if you have not benefited from TG previously to complete a course at the same or higher level of education. If you take up the TG, you will be required to secure employment and serve in a Singapore entity for three years upon graduation. Application for TG will be made available upon successful enrolment into the polytechnics.

For International Students: You may apply for a Tier C TG if you have not benefited from TG previously to complete a course at the same or higher level of education. If you take up the TG, you will be required to secure employment and serve in a Singapore entity for three years upon graduation. Application for TG will be made available upon successful enrolment into the polytechnics.

Should you choose not to apply for TG or are not successfully awarded TG, you will need to pay full Tuition Fees. Students can approach the polytechnics directly for more information.

More information on TG terms and conditions can be found at <https://tgonline.moe.gov.sg>.

I have read the eligibility criteria for the MOE Tuition Grant Scheme for the Full-Time Diploma Course.

Please contact PFP Helpdesk at help@support.pfp.polytechnic.edu.sg should you require assistance in accessing any page or functions.

SUBMIT APPEAL

If you are not successful in your application, or not satisfied with the offered course, you have the option to submit an appeal.

Do consult your parents and teachers before making a decision.

You may appeal for a course as long as you meet the course eligibility criteria and this year's Net ELMAB3 Range displayed on the website, subject to competition for the limited vacancies.

Application Outcome

We regret to inform you that your application under PFPPE is unsuccessful. You may participate in the appeal round.

Appeal for a Change of Course

* Applicants generally stand a better chance in appealing for courses with existing vacancies as listed below, subject to competition. However, an applicant may secure a place in a course without a vacancy during the appeal phase, if someone being offered that course earlier chooses to reject the offer.

SUBMIT APPEAL

- You have up to 3 choices.
- Select the Polytechnic and Course.
- Check the Declaration box before clicking on Submit.

If you are successful in your appeal, your original offered course (if any) will be voided.

You will get to retain the original offered course only if you are not successful in your appeal.

OTHER ACCOUNT MATTERS

FORGET PFP PIN

- If you have forgotten your PFP Pin, enter your NRIC number and click on Forgot PFP PIN.
- An email containing the PFP Pin will be sent to your registered email address.

Note: This is only valid if you have already entered your email address in the system.

If you have not provided your email address and/or lost your PFP Pin, please send an email to help@support.pfp.polytechnic.edu.sg with your full name, NRIC No., date of birth and email address to inform us.

The screenshot displays the 'PFP Login' interface. It features two input fields: 'User ID/NRIC:' with a partially filled field and an example 'e.g. S1234567G, G1234567G', and 'PFP PIN:' with an empty field and the note 'available in your "Form P"'. Below these fields is a 'Message' box containing the text: 'An email containing the PFP PIN has been sent to your registered email account (0,0)'. An 'OK' button is located at the bottom of the message box.

ACCOUNT LOCKED

- The system will lock your PFP account if there are multiple unsuccessful login attempts.
- Email help@support.pfp.polytechnic.edu.sg to request unlocking of your account. Include your full name, NRIC No., date of birth and email address.

The screenshot shows a web page titled "PFP Login". A message box is displayed in the center, containing the text: "Your account has been locked. Please email to the PFP administrator at help@pfp.polytechnic.edu.sg." Below the message is an "OK" button. At the bottom of the page, there are two buttons: "Login" and "Forgot PFP PIN".
